Get the most out of your Junior membership!

---

Junior membership of Royal Freshwater Bay Yacht Club comes with many great benefits.

Dinghy Club:

- Access to a world class Dinghy Club facility including the café, comfortable clubhouse rooms, showers, changerooms and a gym.
- Have your boat on the Club register of vessels and store your boat in a covered rack in the boat shed or in the secure compound.
- Pristine lawn rigging area with wash down facilities and beach launching.

Training and Activities:

- Benefit from the member price on courses. Learn to Sail courses for the 2025-2026 Summer holidays are only $160 for RFBYC Junior members!
- Access to fleet coaching and Club racing.
- Year round calendar of on water activities.
- A fun calendar of social events and regattas for Junior members.
- Junior members are signed up to receive the club email communications and the Dinghy Digest to keep informed about opportunities at RFBYC.
- Parents of Junior members have many opportunities to get involved as Club volunteers, on the water and ashore for Club racing and to assist during sailing regattas.

Member card and access permit:

- Junior members benefit from an RFBYC membership card which can be used for purchasing food and beverage at member prices from the Club tills. Cards are not transferrable, non-members are able to pay by other means.
- Junior member cards provide gate access for drop off and pickup and a vehicle permit is included.

MyRFBYC:

- Junior members receive a login to the website member portal and RFBYC app. The app includes an electronic membership card.

Guests:

- Members can bring up to five guests with them in their company. Non-member parents can access Cappel House (the main building) as the guest of their Junior member child together in their company.
- Make a booking for a special family dinner in the Bowline, sit outside for a casual lunch or book a private function.
- Non-member parents can access the Dinghy Club and café without being in the company of their Junior member child while their child is attending the Club for activities.
